

Radnor Soccer Club

Excellence. Integrity. Sportsmanship. Opportunity.

Club Leadership & Coaches

James Cellucci

James Cellucci is a local soccer coach and player. He has coached for a few different clubs including Nether United, FC Continental, and Union Pre-Academy. James is also a Radnor High School alumnus. He was a three-year varsity player and captain his senior year. During his senior season, he was named Honorable Mention All-Central League and All-Delco.

James continued his soccer playing career in college at Penn State University Brandywine and received his Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and Family Studies. At Brandywine, he was a three-time captain and three-time All-American. James was also named Defensive Player of the Year in the 2018 season. During his four years at Penn State Brandywine, his team won three Conference Championships, and won the 2018 USCAA National Championship.