

Radnor Soccer Club

Excellence. Integrity. Sportsmanship. Opportunity.

Club Leadership & Coaches

Joe Caruolo

Joe Caruolo is a local soccer coach, player, and educator. Joe is nationally certified with a NSCAA Premier Diploma and his coaching experience includes the current Head Coach for Radnor High School Boys Soccer, who won the 2016 District One 3A title and was a 2018 PIAA 4A State Finalist. Joe has been the Boys Varsity Head Coach since 2012 with a record of 106 - 44 - 19 (as of 2020).

Joe's coaching career also includes the Head Coach for Radnor High School Girls Soccer for six years (2006-2011) with a record of 75-25-14, and he was also the assistant coach on the Boys team when they won the 2014 PIAA 2A State Championship. Joe has coached on the club side as well, with the nationally acclaimed FC DELCO club on the Boys side for seven years winning a U-18 Boys NCS State Cup Championship (2013). Joe played locally at Archbishop Carroll High School: two-time captain, Catholic League MVP of the Southern Division, and was All-Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Joe continued to play Division I soccer at Villanova University (Bachelors and Masters Degree), a two-time captain again. Joe is also currently teaching English at Radnor High School.