

Radnor Soccer Club

Excellence. Integrity. Sportsmanship. Opportunity.

Club Leadership & Coaches

Stephen Chareczko

Stephen Chareczko has been a coach with Radnor Soccer Club since 2016. He has coached various teams across various age groups. Each of the Radnor team coached has endured overall winning seasons.

Prior to coaching at Radnor Soccer Club, Stephen coached with the Ukrainian Nationals. His Zirka Red team succeeded in winning various tournaments as well as maintaining winning positions in each of their fall and spring leagues.

Prior to coaching teams directly, Stephen spent multiple stints at various University of Richmond soccer camps and Gene Chyzowych soccer camps, facilitating multiple sessions across all age groups ranging from intramural level to high-school aged level players.

Stephen played soccer at the University of Richmond from 2006-2010. Upon graduating, Stephen spent time in Ukraine taking part in multiple professional trials within prestigious soccer clubs.

Prior to Richmond, Stephen spent the majority of his club career with FC Delco with small stints among the Ukrainian Nationals and Reading Rage PDL. Stephen also played with the EPYSA ODP program. Stephen credits the foundation of his soccer knowledge to his uncles Walter, Gene and Ihor Chyzowych, who have written multiple pieces of literature as well as facilitated coaching clinics across the nation. Stephen is in the early process of obtaining his coaching licenses.