

Radnor Soccer Club

Excellence. Integrity. Sportsmanship. Opportunity.

Club Leadership & Coaches

Taylor Sims

Taylor Sims spent twelve years as a player with Radnor Soccer Club and is a 4-time Delco Division 1 Champion RSC. In high school, Taylor played four years on Radnor High School's varsity team, including in 2004, when he was the only freshmen to play on the Radnor High School varsity team that won the PIAA State Championship.

Taylor was named to the 2007 Eastern Pennsylvania Senior All Star team, played collegiate soccer at Immaculata University.

For the past nine years, Taylor has been on the RSC coaching staff and been the head coach of Radnor High School's junior varsity team. In 2018, Taylor was part of the state championship finalist team's coaching staff as an assistant.