

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 5, 2024 --- Radnor Soccer Club is pleased to announce that along with Lower Merion Soccer Club (LMSC) we have advanced our partnership with Sporting Athletic Club. Sporting PA will be absorbed into Sporting Athletic Club. Radnor Soccer Club will now provide a pathway starting from the local travel level and culminating with opportunities to play at the professional MLS Next/GA Academy leagues for the 24/2025 season.

The following Sporting Athletic Club league platforms will be available to RSC, LMSC, current Sporting PA, and outside players:

1. MLS NEXT Boys and Girls Academy
2. National Academy League Boys and Girls (new for 2024-2025). These U13-U19 teams (one per age group) will be based out of Cabrini University in Radnor, Pennsylvania.

Radnor Soccer Club will continue to field approximately 35 travel teams based out of Radnor Township at ALL age groups. Radnor Soccer Club U13 - U19 Boys and Girls will compete in EDP League and Central League at their team-appropriate level. U8 - U12 Boys and Girls will play in the Acela League, EDP League, and Central League at their team-appropriate level.

There is no change to the organizational structure for Radnor Soccer Club. We will continue to be a community-based club serving intramural and travel team players in Radnor Township and surrounding communities.
